PROGRAM: This program is designed for players from ages 8 to 18 of all ability and experience levels who love the game, have a strong desire to improve their skills. During instructional sessions, players will be grouped according to their age and ability in order to attend to each individual's development. Under the direction of quality instructors using diverse and innovative instruction, each player will be given the individual attention necessary to improve their skills; instructor to student ratio is approximately 1:3. NOTE: HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS ARE WELCOME AND ELIGIBLE TO PARTICIPATE.

FACILITIES AND SKILL DEVELOPMENT: Available facilities include: Campbell's Field, including bullpens, batting cage, and playing field area, portable outdoor pitching mounds, Nex-turf covered Rutgers-Camden Community Park, an indoor batting cage, hitting skills areas, tees, weighted bats, Nautilus machines, free-weights, plyometric strength and conditioning equipment, instructional films, "soft-hands" training aids, pitching machines and indoor bases. Program drills will include: Tee and soft toss drills, short toss, bunting and live hitting in the batting cages. Pitchers will emphasize proper mechanics, control, and development of off-speed pitches as they throw live off the bullpen mounds throughout the camp. Catching, infield, outfield, and baserunning skill sessions along with arm strength, flexibility, running speed, quickness, agility drills and injury prevention will be conducted for all participants.

PERSONAL EQUIPMENT: All players should CLEARLY MARK THEIR PERSONAL EQUIPMENT in advance of attending camp. All players must provide their own glove and should wear a protective cup. Sneakers, turf shoes and spikes are permitted on the turf and grass playing area, however sneakers or turf shoes must be worn in batting cages. Bats and helmets will be provided or you may bring your own. Catchers must wear a protective cup and are encouraged to bring their own equipment.
