This series and other RCCA arts education and community arts programming are made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts; the Rutgers–Camden Office of the Dean of Arts and Sciences; The Big Read, a program of the National Endowment for the Arts in partnership with Arts Midwest; and Rutgers, The Alumni Association.

Rutgers–Camden Center for the Arts inspires a full appreciation and enjoyment of the arts for children in preschool through 12th grade. The RCCA exhibition series and programs are made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts; the Rutgers–Camden Office of the Dean of Arts and Sciences; The Big Read, a program of the National Endowment for the Arts in partnership with Arts Midwest; and Rutgers, The Alumni Association.

Experience arts and events at Rutgers–Camden. Children and adults can participate in community arts programming, art exhibits, and lectures and events. For more information visit: rcca.camden.rutgers.edu. The RCCA exhibition series and programs are made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts; the Rutgers–Camden Office of the Dean of Arts and Sciences; The Big Read, a program of the National Endowment for the Arts in partnership with Arts Midwest; and other generous contributors.

More info: rcca.camden.rutgers.edu
ARTS EDUCATION

Rutgers University–Camden Alumni Weekend 2015
Saturday, May 9

All alumni are invited to return to campus for an all-day event, all-year-round reception, capped with a gala dinner and honoring the Class of 2015. To view the Alumni Weekend schedule or register, go to: camden.rutgers.edu/alumni/at-reu

Location: Rutgers–Camden Community Park Athletic Field
TICKETS INFO

Tickets: $7 each; $5 each for Camden Schools, Organizations, and Residents
TICKETS INFO

For more information, contact: Miranda Powell
303 Cooper Street
Camden, NJ 08102-1519
miranda.powell@rutgers.edu

ARTS AND EVENTS
WINTER/SPRING 2015
Children and adults can participate in a range of engaging cultural offerings this winter and spring on campus.

• Gallery exhibitions
• Concerts and symphony orchestra
• Author readings
• Theater performances
• Reading events for children
• Conferences and lectures
• Stages of Discovery Performance Series
• Free and low-cost programs
• Public events for all ages
• Workshops for children and adults

Many programs and events are free, and are offered in collaboration with Rutgers. camden.rutgers.edu/alumni/at-reu

ARTS EDUCATION

Through performances, exhibitions, education programs, and community projects, the Rutgers–Camden Center for the Arts presents a variety of education, artist talks, and mentoring activities in a live setting.

From the Digital Toolbox
Jan. 12 to Feb. 20

Computers are ubiquitous in so many aspects of life. Everyone with a cell phone generates digital images, and students are increasingly interested in creating art that is informed by the digital. This exhibition features art by the Digital Toolbox artists: Nancy Tenenbaum, Tim Bond, and Frank Bello. Students have tested their skills at multiple digital technologies to produce a variety of work.

ARTS EDUCATION

Exhibitions of Discovery Performance Series
For more than 25 years, the Rutgers–Camden Center for the Arts has designed and implemented research-based arts education programs for New Jersey’s Type 1 schools. The center’s education program is funded by New Jersey Core Content Curriculum Framework. Performances and activities have been selected for their high level of artistic quality and ability to engage young audiences and artists.

Saturday, Feb. 13 at 10 a.m.
“The Lightning Thief”

Based on the popular book series by Rick Riordan. With a love for monsters and the gods of ancient Olympus, Percy must make a straight shot out of pages from his Greek mythology textbook, which means he must find and return Zeus’s stolen prop: the Lightning Bolt! He has to face his fears and make the perfect shot to save his friends, his power and bring peace to Mount Olympus. This musical presents a story about friendship, facing one’s fears and learning that sometimes the greatest obstacles are the hardest to overcome. Performances in this series have been selected for their high level of artistic quality and ability to engage young audiences and artists.

Location: Stedman Gallery
Fine Arts Building
Hours: Monday to Saturday, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Thursday, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.
For more information: rcca.camden.rutgers.edu
ARTS EDUCATION
Friday, May 1 at 10 a.m.
“Teacher from the Black Lagoon and Other Scary Books”
Thompson Library
Ages 3-10
This new musical revue is based on favorite children’s books, such as Splat the Cat by Rob Scotton; or Dog the Ant by Jeremy Tankard; or others. Performers in the show will dress up as the characters from their favorite books, take turns reading from them, and tell the audience how they turned the pages. To reserve your tickets, contact ArtsPower National Touring Theatre at 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Thursday, May 7 to June 1. More info: rcca.camden.rutgers.edu

ARTS AND EVENTS
WINTER/SPRING 2015
Exhibitions and Performances
Rutgers University–Camden
Center for the Arts
About the Rutgers–Camden Center for the Arts
For more than 25 years, the Rutgers–Camden Center for the Arts has designed and implemented research-based arts education programs for New Jersey’s pre-K through 12 schools. Alumni’s education program fulfills New Jersey’s Core Curriculum Content Standards. Performances in this series have been selected for their high level of artistic quality and ability to engage young audiences and families.

The RCCA exhibition series and programs are made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts in partnership with Arts Midwest; and many other generous contributors.

EXPERIENCE ARTS AND EVENTS AT
RUTGERS UNIVERSITY–CAMDEN.

Rutgers–Camden Alumni Weekend 2015
Saturday, May 9
All alumni are invited to return to campus for an all-schools, all-year reunion reception, fireworks display, and dancing under the stars. The Class of 1965 will celebrate its 50th anniversary reunion with graduates of prior years at the special Golden Reunion Reception.

Location: Rutgers–Camden Community Park athletic field.
For info: rccam.rutgers.edu or contact the RUAA: 856-225-6028 or rccam.rutgers.edu.

ARTS EDUCATION
Stedman Gallery, Fine Arts Building
Hours: Monday to Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Thursday, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
More info: rcca.camden.rutgers.edu

Rutgers–Camden Center for the Arts inspires a full appreciation and enjoyment of the arts for children in pre-K through 12 and adults.

The RCCA exhibition series and programs are made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts, the Rutgers–Camden Office of the Dean of Arts and Sciences; The Big Read, a program of the National Endowment for the Arts; Subaru the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency from: Campbell Soup Foundation; Geraldine R. Dodge Foundation, New Jersey State Council on the Arts in partnership with Arts Midwest; and many other generous contributors.

New Jersey State Council on the Arts
This program is partially funded by a grant from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State in partnership with Warren County Board of Chosen Freeholders. ArtsPower’s newest musical about the irresistible Dog who loves everything about books. He loves reading books so much that he decides to open up his own bookstore. This musical celebrates the power of the imagination and the satisfaction that come when you share a book with others.

From the Digital Toolbox
Jan. 12 to Feb. 20
California artists are using new technologies to create digital designs and students are increasingly interested in learning art. Responding to this trend, the Digital Toolbox features Nancy Trust, Tim Perbeck, Ball Frank; Siamsa; Vingt-Quinze—all trained as painters—who have turned to multiple digital technologies to produce a variety of work.

Juvenile in Justice
March 4 to April 24
Javert in Justice is a project by photographer Richard T. Nowitz documenting the placement and treatment of American juveniles housed by law in facilities that treat, confine, penalize, assist, and, occasionally, harm American juveniles. To date, the project includes photographic interviews and portraits of over 450 juveniles in over 200 facilities in 35 states. The work rejects the specter of institutional apathy and authority.

Location: Skidmore Gallery, Fine Arts Building
More info: rcca.camden.rutgers.edu

About the Rutgers–Camden Center for the Arts
Rutgers–Camden Alumni Weekend 2015
Saturday, May 9
All alumni are invited to return to campus for an all-schools, all-year reunion reception, fireworks display, and dancing under the stars. The Class of 1965 will celebrate its 50th anniversary reunion with graduates of prior years at the special Golden Reunion Reception.

Location: Rutgers–Camden Community Park athletic field.
For info: rccam.rutgers.edu or contact the RUAA: 856-225-6028 or rccam.rutgers.edu.

Alumni Weekend 2015
Saturday, May 9
All alumni are invited to return to campus for an all-schools, all-year reunion reception, fireworks display, and dancing under the stars. The Class of 1965 will celebrate its 50th anniversary reunion with graduates of prior years at the special Golden Reunion Reception.

Location: Rutgers–Camden Community Park athletic field.
For info: rccam.rutgers.edu or contact the RUAA: 856-225-6028 or rccam.rutgers.edu.

From the Digital Toolbox
Jan. 12 to Feb. 20
California artists are using new technologies to create digital designs and students are increasingly interested in learning art. Responding to this trend, the Digital Toolbox features Nancy Trust, Tim Perbeck, Ball Frank; Siamsa; Vingt-Quinze—all trained as painters—who have turned to multiple digital technologies to produce a variety of work.

Juvenile in Justice
March 4 to April 24
Javert in Justice is a project by photographer Richard T. Nowitz documenting the placement and treatment of American juveniles housed by law in facilities that treat, confine, penalize, assist, and, occasionally, harm American juveniles. To date, the project includes photographic interviews and portraits of over 450 juveniles in over 200 facilities in 35 states. The work rejects the specter of institutional apathy and authority.

Location: Skidmore Gallery, Fine Arts Building
More info: rcca.camden.rutgers.edu
THE STUDENT-DIRECTED ONE ACT PLAY FESTIVAL
The event features 12 one-act plays directed by three professional directors at the University of Delaware. Performances are offered on Wednesdays.Directed by: Joseph Vittori, clinical associate professor of drama and cinematography for the Faculty of Arts and Sciences graduate program in Graduate and University Studies. All performances start at 7:15 p.m.

Wednesday, Feb. 6 7:15 p.m.
Thursday, Feb. 7 7:15 p.m.
Wednesday, Feb. 13 7:15 p.m.
Thursday, Feb. 14 7:15 p.m.
Wednesday, Feb. 20 7:15 p.m.
Thursday, Feb. 21 7:15 p.m.

THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST
By Oscar Wilde
Directed by: Dr. Kenneth Elliott, associate professor of theater at the University of Delaware.
Oscar Wilde’s masterpiece is a comic escapade of epigrammatic proportions. Feel the ebullience of this classic tale as it is brought to life.

Wednesday, April 15 7:30 p.m.
Thursday, April 16 7:30 p.m.
Friday, April 17 7:30 p.m.
Saturday, April 18 7:30 p.m.
Sunday, April 19 7:30 p.m.

Sorry, the information you requested was not found.
SYMPHONY IN C

THE STUDENT-DIRECTED ONE ACT FESTIVAL

The festival features one-act plays directed by students as part of their academic and professional musical training. Tickets are offered on Wednesdays.

PHILADELPHIA,Saturday, March 14 at 7 p.m.

Directed by Dr. Joseph Buchhalter, assistant director of the Performing Arts at Rutgers–Camden, the student-directed festival brings together students from the School of Communication and the Performing Arts. For tickets, visit mfa.camden.rutgers.edu."
MALLORY CONCERT SERIES

SYMPHONY IN C

THEATRE PERFORMANCES

THE STUDENT-DIRECTED ONE ACT PLAY FESTIVAL

Wednesday, March 11: 7:30 p.m.
Thursday, March 12: 7:30 p.m.
Friday, March 13: 7:30 p.m.
Saturday, March 14: 7:30 p.m.
Sunday, March 15: 3:00 p.m.

PERFORMANCES

CAMDEN COMIC CON 2015
Sat., Mar. 28: 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
The center, featuring professional cartoonists, is in the Pilot Building, first floor of the Rutgers-Camden Center. The center focuses on the influence of comic books and associated media on popular culture. The event features cartoonists, writers, and artists discussing the latest in the field of comics, and a host of workshops and panel discussions. In addition, there will be an exhibition and networking events.

CONFERENCES AND LECTURES

CENTER FOR URBAN RESEARCH AND EDUCATION (SURE) Seminar
 Thurs., Feb. 19: 12:15 to 1:30 p.m.
Thurs., March 5: 12:15 to 1:30 p.m.
Thurs., March 19: 12:15 to 1:30 p.m.
Thurs., April 2: 12:15 to 1:30 p.m.

Rutgers University-Camden is located just across the Delaware River from Center City Philadelphia and a short walk from the Camden Waterfront. You can visit us by taking the PATCO Speedline or the NJ TRANSIT Rail Line to Camden. We’re also convenient to all major highways. Directions and maps are available at camden.rutgers.edu/visit-campus.

For visiting park information, see camden.rutgers.edu/visit-campus.

DIRECTIONS AND PARKING
Rutgers University-Camden is located just across the Delaware River from Center City Philadelphia and a short walk from the Camden Waterfront. You can visit us by taking the PATCO Speedline or the NJ TRANSIT Rail Line to Camden. We’re also convenient to all major highways. Directions and maps are available at camden.rutgers.edu/visit-campus.

For visiting park information, see camden.rutgers.edu/visit-campus.

SEE YOU THIS SEMESTER
Parking Lots:
3
13
8
15
THEATER
for the Arts, and, at Rutgers University–Camden, sponsored by the National Endowment (editor, Crown Publishing and Jeff Kleinman (founder, Folio Literary). Tiphanie Yanique: Benjamin Alire Sáenz:
Wednesday, Feb. 18 are followed by a Q&A session and reception with.
Wednesday, April 15
Gavin Black, harpsichord
Kathleen Scheide, fortepiano
Wednesday, March 11
Maryanne Meyer, harp
Wednesday, March 4
Elysian Camerata, chamber ensemble
Richard Alston, piano
Celebrating Black History Month
Wednesday, Feb. 18
Misha Yanovilsky, piano
John Proulx, piano
University College. of Arts and Sciences undergraduate programs and performed by visiting professional artists. Our free performed to the public to watch.
Saturday, April 18 and Sunday, April 19
Second Annual Teen Poetry Festival
POETRY FESTIVAL
Fine Arts Building
Bruckner: “Symphony #4 in E-flat Major”
and Bassoon”
Mozart: “Sinfonia Concertante in E-flat Major, K. 297b for Oboe, Clarinet, Horn, and Bassoon”
Brahms: “Piano Concert #1 in D Minor, Opus 90”
Rossen Milanov, conductor
Saturday, April 25

Rutgers University–Camden is located just across the Delaware River from Center City Philadelphia and a short walk from the Camden Waterfront. You can visit us by taking the PATCO Speedline or the NJ TRANSIT Rail Line to Camden. We’re also convenient to all major commuter train lines. Directions and maps are available at camden.rutgers.edu/visit-campus.

SEE YOU THIS SEMESTER
Rutgers University–Camden is located just across the Delaware River from Center City Philadelphia and a short walk from the Camden Waterfront. You can visit us by taking the PATCO Speedline or the NJ TRANSIT Rail Line to Camden. We’re also convenient to all major commuter train lines. Directions and maps are available at camden.rutgers.edu/visit-campus.

SEE YOU THIS SEMESTER
Rutgers University–Camden is located just across the Delaware River from Center City Philadelphia and a short walk from the Camden Waterfront. You can visit us by taking the PATCO Speedline or the NJ TRANSIT Rail Line to Camden. We’re also convenient to all major commuter train lines. Directions and maps are available at camden.rutgers.edu/visit-campus.

SEE YOU THIS SEMESTER
Rutgers University–Camden is located just across the Delaware River from Center City Philadelphia and a short walk from the Camden Waterfront. You can visit us by taking the PATCO Speedline or the NJ TRANSIT Rail Line to Camden. We’re also convenient to all major commuter train lines. Directions and maps are available at camden.rutgers.edu/visit-campus.

SEE YOU THIS SEMESTER
Rutgers University–Camden is located just across the Delaware River from Center City Philadelphia and a short walk from the Camden Waterfront. You can visit us by taking the PATCO Speedline or the NJ TRANSIT Rail Line to Camden. We’re also convenient to all major commuter train lines. Directions and maps are available at camden.rutgers.edu/visit-campus.

SEE YOU THIS SEMESTER
Rutgers University–Camden is located just across the Delaware River from Center City Philadelphia and a short walk from the Camden Waterfront. You can visit us by taking the PATCO Speedline or the NJ TRANSIT Rail Line to Camden. We’re also convenient to all major commuter train lines. Directions and maps are available at camden.rutgers.edu/visit-campus.

SEE YOU THIS SEMESTER
Rutgers University–Camden is located just across the Delaware River from Center City Philadelphia and a short walk from the Camden Waterfront. You can visit us by taking the PATCO Speedline or the NJ TRANSIT Rail Line to Camden. We’re also convenient to all major commuter train lines. Directions and maps are available at camden.rutgers.edu/visit-campus.

SEE YOU THIS SEMESTER
Rutgers University–Camden is located just across the Delaware River from Center City Philadelphia and a short walk from the Camden Waterfront. You can visit us by taking the PATCO Speedline or the NJ TRANSIT Rail Line to Camden. We’re also convenient to all major commuter train lines. Directions and maps are available at camden.rutgers.edu/visit-campus.
Rutgers University-Camden
Alumni Weekend 2015
Saturday, May 9

All alumni are invited to return to campus for an all-day celebration of reunion, networking, and fun. Space is limited, so make sure you register now.

To reserve your tickets, contact Miranda Powell: 856-225-6202 or miranda.powell@rutgers.edu

Location: Walter K. Gordon Theater, Rutgers University–Camden

This new musical revue is based on favorite children’s book titles. Produced for New York City’s Off-Broadway, it features energetic dance, sing-along songs, and great laughs. Other book titles may include: Black Lagoon by Dav Pilkey; The Grasshopper and the Ant by Rob Scotton; or Teacher from the Black Lagoon and Other Storybooks by Mike Thaler and Jared Lee, performed by Theatreworks USA. This production is for Ages 3–9.

Tuesday, March 3 at 10 a.m.

This new musical revue is based on favorite children’s book titles. Produced for New York City’s Off-Broadway, it features energetic dance, sing-along songs, and great laughs. Other book titles may include: Black Lagoon by Dav Pilkey; The Grasshopper and the Ant by Rob Scotton; or Teacher from the Black Lagoon and Other Storybooks by Mike Thaler and Jared Lee, performed by Theatreworks USA. This production is for Ages 3–9.

Tuesday, March 3 at 10 a.m.

Rutgers–Camden Center for the Arts (RCCA) inspires a full appreciation and enjoyment of art, social practice, and politics. Through performances, exhibitions, education programs, and community projects, the center promotes the arts for children in pre-K through 12 and adults.

Rutgers–Camden University–Camden Center for the Arts

ABOUT THE RUTGERS–CAMDEN CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Through performances, exhibitions, education programs, and community projects, the Rutgers–Camden Center for the Arts promotes a full appreciation and enjoyment of the arts for children in pre-K through 12 and adults.

The RCCA exhibition series and programs are made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts (Awards to Artists) and the New Jersey State Council on the Arts in partnership with Arts MIDWEST and other generous contributors.

The Grasshopper and the Ant is a new musical revue that celebrates the power of the imagination and the satisfaction that comes when you share books with others.

This musical celebrates the irrepressible love of a boy named Percy Jackson who loves everything about books. He loves the bestseller comes to life at 10 a.m.

This musical celebrates the irrepressible love of a boy named Percy Jackson who loves everything about books. He loves the bestseller comes to life at 10 a.m.

This musical celebrates the irrepressible love of a boy named Percy Jackson who loves everything about books. He loves the bestseller comes to life at 10 a.m.